INFORMATION RELATED TO FILING SUIT UNDER THE LAWS ENFORCED BY THE EEOC

(This information relates to filing suit in Federal or State court under Federal law. If you also plan to sue claiming violations of State law, please be aware that time limits may be shorter and other provisions of State law may be different than those described below.)

IMPORTANT TIME LIMITS - 90 DAYS TO FILE A LAWSUIT

If you choose to file a lawsuit against the respondent(s) named in the charge of discrimination, you must file a complaint in court within 90 days of the date you receive this Notice. Receipt generally means the date when you (or your representative) opened this email or mail. You should keep a record of the date you received this notice. Once this 90-day period has passed, your right to sue based on the charge referred to in this Notice will be lost. If you intend to consult an attorney, you should do so promptly. Give your attorney a copy of this Notice, and the record of your receiving it (email or envelope).

If your lawsuit includes a claim under the Equal Pay Act (EPA), you must file your complaint in court within 2 years (3 years for willful violations) of the date you did not receive equal pay. This time limit for filing an EPA lawsuit is separate from the 90-day filing period under Title VII, the ADA, GINA, the ADEA, or the PWFA referred to above. Therefore, if you also plan to sue under Title VII, the ADA, GINA, the ADEA or the PWFA, in addition to suing on the EPA claim, your lawsuit must be filed within 90 days of this Notice and within the 2- or 3-year EPA period.

Your lawsuit may be filed in U.S. District Court or a State court of competent jurisdiction. Whether you file in Federal or State court is a matter for you to decide after talking to your attorney. You must file a "complaint" that contains a short statement of the facts of your case which shows that you are entitled to relief. Filing this Notice is not enough. For more information about filing a lawsuit, go to https://www.eeoc.gov/employees/lawsuit.cfm.

ATTORNEY REPRESENTATION

For information about locating an attorney to represent you, go to: https://www.eeoc.gov/employees/lawsuit.cfm.

In very limited circumstances, a U.S. District Court may appoint an attorney to represent individuals who demonstrate that they are financially unable to afford an attorney.

HOW TO REQUEST YOUR CHARGE FILE AND 90-DAY TIME LIMIT FOR REQUESTS

There are two ways to request a charge file: 1) a FOIA Request or 2) a Section 83 request. You may request your charge file under either or both procedures. EEOC can generally respond to Section 83 requests more promptly than FOIA requests.

Since a lawsuit must be filed within 90 days of this notice, please submit your request for the charge file promptly to allow sufficient time for EEOC to respond and for your review. To Whom It May Concern

I am requesting to have my unemployment benefits back dated to my last day worked, Thursday, January 27, 2022. I was suspended from work due to being non-compliant for not taking the mandatory Covid-19 vaccine. In late October early November, it was announced that we could submit for a for a religious exemption for the vaccine. I applied and subsequently denied the exemption. I was suspended from that time until April 7th, 2022, when I was discharged for reasons previously stated.

Prior to working almost fifteen years for the same organization, I previously work for Provident of South Holland, formally dba as Rest Heaven at the same building address of 16300 Wausau, South Holland, IL 60473, for a period of five years, before leaving to join St. Margaret Hammond, now dba: Franciscan Health. With working various job at restaurants and such, meaning I've working continually for at the last thirty years or better.

I did not know I could receive unemployment benefits while suspended. While suspended, late February, early March I did get worried about the preceding outcome and began to look for a job. Putting applications at a few restaurants, as a server, knowing it would equal cash every day. It's how I raised four adult children. Once being discharged April 7th, 2022, a family crisis arose with my maternal grandfather age 89, I began going back and forth the Junica, MS caring for him. I began to seek out alternative ways to work remotely applying with several places without success. My family issue resolved late July. I continue to seek remote jobs; as the reason being fired is non-compliant of Covid-19 vaccine. Most jobs now required as such, many more do not accept the religious exemption request.

I did look for jobs Walgreens, applied July 20th, 2022 saying "thank you, however, good luck in your continued search. Please consider back dating my application. I realize there was an issue with my identity; however, I pray this detailed information can some prove I am who I saw I am. God made me who I am.

Sincerely

Marshane Tenise Shelby
